Explanation of Income and Expenditures for the 2017 tax year.

INCOME: 2016 income included event and auction proceeds, membership dues and minimal donations. We held the following income producing events:

2/4/2017 – Magical Beats – 1920’s evening in the Wizarding World- a themed evening of entertainment, dancing and celebration based on the movie Magical Beasts and where to find them.

5/20/2017 – Fashion of Downton Abbey Costumers Closet Workshop. Fashion of the Downton Abbey Years 1912-1925 Lecture/demo, plus hands on project

6/24/2017 –De-stash Sale- Event for our members and friends to sell their excess costumes, fabric and supplies

8/13/2017 – Portland Prohibition Picnic – Prohibition era themed picnic.

EXPENDITURES: Our expenditures included membership dues paid to the ICG, our annual PO box, and corporate taxes.

Event expenditures included: venue rental, insurance, decorations, refreshments, presenter and entertainer's fees, photo copying, advertising and postage expenses for promotion of our events. Other expenditures included free memberships, badge ribbons, pins and buttons, workshop supplies, prizes, paper and photocopying for handouts.

EVENTS: We used our funds to support the following activities:

Included are only our major events, we also supported many more casual events each month

MONTHLY REPEATING EVENTS:

Salon and Stitch & Bitch- held each Second Sunday- a meeting and mini-workshop with costume related demos and guest presentations, costume help, and work space.

OTHER MAJOR EVENTS:

- Goodwill Hunting- A thrift shop tour of southwest Portland and banquet
- Annual Member Meet and Greet - Annual report to our members and preview of coming events.
- Costume Porn Theater and Potluck- We discuss movie costuming and enjoy a potluck
- Post-Apocalyptic Picnic – Picnic at a local park, prizes given for the best interpretation of the theme.
- Time Travelers Ball- Refreshments and servers provided for this Hillsboro Historical Society event
- Orycon- Support for a local Science Fiction convention. Our members help produce the Masquerade/costume contest and serve on costume panels.
- Holiday Express –Purchased group discount tickets for a holiday train ride. We absorbed the cost of fees and unsold tickets.
- Geek the Halls- Free Fantastic Beasts themed photo booth at this community event
