<https://www.facebook.com/events/2368663963189706>

The Griffith Building, 4755 SW Griffith Dr.,

Beaverton, Rm 150

Look for the glass doors on the left hand corner of the building. Knock and we will let you in.

October 6th Salon: Half-yearly event calendar planning meeting. PLUS, fabric for Suffragette sashes! Join us to help discuss and create our event calendar through May 2020. Volunteer to help host an event!

What is the Stitch & Bitch and Salon? It is our monthly guild meeting. We gather and hang out and discuss coming events, and work on our costume projects. This is a great way to meet other costumers.

We usually start the meeting with a short "Salon", or talk where a member will share something costume related. It could be a show and tell, photos of an event, or a demo or how-to. Members are encouraged to volunteer to sign up to lead a salon.

There are tables available and you may bring your own sewing machine (please bring an extension cord), sewing tools, or crafting supplies. snack to share. Drink cups with lids are requested.
